Director's Desk

Welcome back to IU for what I expect will be an exciting semester! I am sure that you witnessed the historic inauguration of our nation's first African-American president, Barack Obama. As the month of January represented the beginning of a new year, President Obama represents the dawn of a new era. I wish each of you the best as you move forward toward your goals.

Last semester was fun and exciting for all of our programs! The Welcome Reception allowed us to welcome our students to IU. The Bowling and Pizza social allowed students to take a well deserved break. The FASE and 21st Century Scholars Tailgate and Men of Color Leadership Conference allowed students to come together for both fun and serious academic discussion. Look forward to future events as the semester takes shape!
